A company of Girl Reserves of America has been organized in Rutland. Nineteen girls joined at the first meeting.

Lyle Robbins Beckwith of Chelsea and Henry Kinney of Rutland, also Lawrence Clark Jones, passed the required law eximinations and were admitted to the bar in Montpelier recently.

Frank Barnes of Heath, Mass., 76, ended guilty to a charge of taking a muskrat out of season in the district of Brattleboro and to the charge of stealing sheep from Frank Wheeler of Whiting The case came to trial in Brattle For having the muskrat, Acting Judge F. M. Butler imposed a fine of $25 and costs of $14.80, which Barnes paid. On the plea of guilty to stealing the sheep the court sentenced Barnes to not less than four months nor more than six months in the house of correction at Rutland but suspended the sentence and placed the respondent on probation for a year, an additional condition being that he pay Mr. Wheeler $15 for the sheep.

WELLS RIVER Woodsville and Wells River Celebrated Beginning at 6 A. M.

Beginning about 6 o'clock on Monday morning, all whistles commenced to blow all bells began to ring and the celebration of the defeat of the kaiser was in full swing. Schools were dismissed and stores closed and the day given up to celebrat-ing. At 10 o'clock a parade of school children of the Wells River and Woodsville schools, the band and many other musical and non-musical instruments, and the autos of the two places. The parade started from the opera block, Woodsville, followed up to the upper end of the town, crossed to Wells River and back to Woodsville, from there the autos going south on the New Hampshire side o Haverhill, crossed the river and back through Newbury on the Vermont side In the afternoon a free show was given by local talent, assisted by moving pictures. The evening was given up to en-joyment of all kinds.

The Masons held a special meeting last Thursday night, in which two degrees were worked on a party who is leaving for the army.

Mr. Burley, who has been night clerk at Hale's tavern for the summer, com pleted his labors Sunday night and left for Chester Monday morning. After a few days' visit at Chester and Three Rivers, Que., he goes to Springfield, Mass., where he has a position as clerk at Clinton hall, one of the up-to-date hotels of that city.

Emery White and wife left Monday for Boston, by auto. If the weather con-tinues good they intend to motor through to Florida, going part way in a Buick and the remainder with another party in a Chalmers. This is the tenth winter that they have spent at St. Petersburg,

J. F. Hale, who has been attending a meeting of hotel men in Boston, returned Saturday.

Dr. Perry and William Greenwood are spending the week in the wilds of northern Vermont, where they are in hopes of getting their usual number of deer. Albert and George Bailey left Saturday for a week's hunting trip at Groton pond. On Monday they were joined by Charles Harmon.

Mrs Sullivan, a life-long resident of Wells River, died at the home of her daughter in Boston last Thursday. Funeral services were held Saturday and interment was in the St. Johnsbury Telephone South Deerfield 56-14. cemetery. Mrs. Sullivan was always a very popular resident and while for several years she was not out very much she will be missed a great deal by her friends.
